🎤 Friday Night – Leader Speech #2 (Post-Video, Logistics & Reminders)

"Wow! What an amazing preview, right?
You've just seen what's in store for the Avengers Quest Camporee — and tomorrow, you'll step straight into that action.
But before we get there, let's talk about what's happening tonight and what you need to know to be ready for tomorrow."

🕓 Friday Night Schedule

"In just a few moments, my colleague Heath Parker will take over and walk you through how we'll spend the next 60 minutes — our Friday night activity leading up to cracker barrel.
It's going to be fun, hands-on, and a great way to start your Avengers weekend!"

🗓️ Tomorrow Morning – Key Reminders

"Tomorrow morning, I'll see every one of you at the flag ceremony at 7:35 a.m. sharp. Assemble into 4 groups, based on color t-shirt
Make sure you're wearing your colored team T-shirt — that's your Infinity Stone color — and that you have the following ready to go:

- A bottle of water 💧
- Your compass 🧭
- Your camp map 🗺️
- Proper clothing for welding and activity stations (long sleeves, closed-toe shoes) 👕 👖

After flag, at 7:50 a.m., your groups will depart the field to begin your Avengers Training rotations."

🧩 Teams and Staff

"We've got about 100 Scouts here this weekend, divided into four groups, each wearing a different colored T-shirt — representing the colors of the Infinity Stones.

You'll also see about 60 Camporee Staff around the field — they'll all be wearing orange shirts. These are your Avengers Trainers and support crew, so if you need help, directions, or water — find someone in orange."

⚠ Rules for the Weekend

"A few quick but important reminders, heroes:

- Always wear your team T-shirt — every adult, every staff member, and every Scout.
- Stay hydrated. Keep your water bottle with you at all times.
- Bring your compass and map to every session — you'll need them.
- Dress appropriately for welding and physical challenges.
- And finally… Lights out at 23:30 (11:30 p.m.)!
  Tomorrow is a big day, and you'll want to be well-rested when training begins."

🎖 Thank You to Our Sponsors

"Before we wrap up, I want to take a moment to thank our amazing sponsors who donated food, prizes, and supplies to make this event possible.
Their generosity helps us create an unforgettable weekend for every Scout here."

🗣 Closing

"Alright, Avengers-in-training — get ready for tonight's activity, then some well-earned rest.
Tomorrow morning, we assemble as one team, ready to defend the world and prove ourselves worthy of the title Avenger!
Heath, take it away!"
